Mission Statement: Appalachian District

Charleston, WV – May 2010

Vision

The Father has gathered us, Divine Word Missionaries, from many different places and peoples and has sent us here to Appalachia, to make our home in this land.

Jesus, the Word made Flesh, calls us to help make the love of God visible and to see God's presence in the people we encounter.

Missionary Commitment

The Holy Spirit is leading us to spend our lives with the people of Appalachia. We serve as leaders in the local Catholic Church, many of whose members are, like us, “outsiders” who have been transplanted to Appalachia.

We are especially committed to rural folk, the unchurched, and the poor and marginalized.

We work to build up a more inclusive community with “local folk” and “outsiders,” encouraging greater mutual trust and mutual hospitality.

In this way we stir up a sense of the holy for our own Catholic folk, for the unchurched and for members of the other churches.

In the Spirit we strive to share our hope.

Mission Statement: Canada District

Granby, January 2004

Called to live out the charism of our Congregation, we, the members of the Society of the Divine Word in Canada, work for the new evangelization in cooperation with the local Church.

We strive to announce the Gospel to all, young as well as adults, to the believers and to the indifferent.

Among our main activities we include especially the biblical apostolate and the care of ethnic groups.

- We want to revitalize the believers and interest the indifferent by means of retreats and biblical activities.
- We want to help ethnic groups to preserve their religious heritage and integrate their faith with the local people to enrich the Church in Canada.

Our life and work in international teams is meant to be a witness and a reminder to the Church in Canada of the universal mission and a call to the young to join in that mission.

Adopted October 8, 2008

*Divine Word Missionaries of the Techny Community strive “to make the goodness and kindness of God visible in our life and service.”
(Prologue, SVD Constitutions)*

As a community within the Chicago Province, we embrace our province’s mission and aim to accomplish its goals by proclaiming the Word of God, inviting collaboration in mission, caring for one another and calling and training new members.

Specifically, the Divine Word Missionaries of the Techny community:

PROCLAIM the Word of God through the celebration of meaningful liturgical services for ourselves, for visitors and patrons at Techny Towers and through our service to local parishes. We preach the Word of God in action by feeding the poor.

INVITE collaboration in mission through respectful and just relations with our employees, through our interactions with local civic and religious leaders, through supporting mission office and province programs of mission animation and fund-raising, by offering hospitality to members’ friends and families and to SVDs visiting Techny.

CARE for one another by ensuring quality health services for our infirm and elderly, by providing healthy and nutritious meals, by encouraging healthy fellowship within the community, by maintaining attractive and safe facilities and grounds, by offering appropriate opportunities for enrichment and on-going education.

CALL AND TRAIN new members by providing a healthy environment and community for the novitiate and by supporting province efforts in recruitment. Through their ministry of prayer, our retired members in particular pray for vocations, our sick, and our benefactors.

Theologate Chicago

Mission Statement: Divine Word Theologate

From Formation Handbook 2013

MISSION: The Divine Word Theologate in Chicago is a religious community of the Society of the Divine Word (SVD).

- The Theologate community seeks to become a "living, Christ-centered community," a true reflection "of the Blessed Trinity from whom our life and mission draw their source and strength." (C. 505) The unity in the diversity of the Trinity is a model for the multi-cultural and international character that we acknowledge as our charism and cultivate as a community.
- The purposes of formation at the Theologate are the same as those described in the SVD Constitutions, 501 - 509. Constitution 503 states: "Our formation is total and integral: it seeks to bring about human maturity, professional competence, and committed faith."

GOALS: The goals of the formation program at Divine Word Theologate are to fulfill the mission given to us in the SVD Constitutions. These are:

- to prepare members in temporary vows for lifetime commitment in the SVD as religious missionaries;
- to prepare priesthood candidates for the Sacrament of Orders in the SVD;
- to provide and foster theological formation for all members of the SVD Community through their participation in academic/ministerial programs;
- to assist Associates in their vocational discernment through experiential living in a religious community and through philosophical and theological studies.
- to promote the committed faith, human maturity, social and cross-cultural awareness of all in the Theologate;
- to foster the missionary vocation through a multi-cultural and international environment and to develop an openness to, appreciation for, and dialogue with other Christian denominations, religions and cultures;
- to promote greater missionary awareness at Catholic Theological Union (CTU) and at places where we minister;
- to be a theological/missiological resource center for the larger SVD community;
- to offer hospitality to all Divine Word Missionaries and all guests.
